The Three Levels

ACCA is recognised in 180+ countries and has 13 papers across three levels, with up to 8 attempts allowed per year and generous exemptions for Commerce graduates and CA students.

Applied Knowledge (3)

- Business & Technology (BT)
- Management Accounting (MA)
- Financial Accounting (FA)

Applied Skills (6)

- Corporate & Business Law (LW), Performance Management (PM), Taxation (TX)
- Financial Reporting (FR), Audit & Assurance (AA), Financial Management (FM)

Strategic Professional (4)

- Essentials: Strategic Business Leader (SBL), Strategic Business Reporting (SBR)
- Options (pick 2): AFM, APM, ATX, AAA

Pass: 50% in every paper. Ethics module required before membership.

First-Attempt Strategy

- Check exemptions first — a 10-minute check can save a year (we do it free).
- Attempt one paper per window early on; quality builds the base.
- Learn through questions — ACCA rewards applied answers over re-reading.
- Treat SBL as a business simulation; professional-skills marks decide passes.
- Use ACCA examiner reports — they reveal exactly what went wrong each sitting.
- Do the Ethics module early — it teaches the SBL style.

Mistakes That Cost Attempts

- Skipping the practice kit.
- Attempting too many papers per window.
- Ignoring professional-skills marks in SBL.
- Not checking exemptions before starting.
