One Week Before

- Revise from your one-page chapter summaries and formula sheets — not full textbooks.
- Solve the last 2-3 years of previous-year papers, timed.
- Focus on your error notebook and weak topics.
- Avoid learning brand-new topics; consolidate what you know.

The Night Before

- Do light revision only — no all-nighters. Sleep is memory.
- Pack your bag: admit card, ID, stationery, transparent water bottle, watch.
- Set two alarms and plan to reach the centre early.
- Eat a normal dinner and relax your mind.

Exam Morning

- Eat a light, familiar breakfast; avoid heavy or new food.
- Carry the admit card and school ID — check twice.
- Reach the centre at least 30-45 minutes early.
- Do a quick glance at formulas, then stay calm.

Inside the Exam Hall

- Fill roll number and details carefully.
- Read all instructions and use the reading time to plan.
- Attempt known questions first; mark and return to tough ones.
- Keep 15 minutes to review question numbers, units and unattempted parts.
