Before the Exam

- Finish the syllabus early and keep the last month for revision.
- Solve at least ten years of previous papers and sample papers.
- Make a revision timetable covering every subject.
- Prepare formula sheets and one-liner notes for quick review.

In the Exam Hall

- Use the 15-minute reading time to plan your attempt.
- Attempt questions you know first to build confidence.
- Manage time: allot minutes per mark and stick to it.
- Present neatly, underline key points and draw labelled diagrams.

Smart Scoring

- Follow the marking scheme – write to the point.
- Attempt all questions; never leave anything blank.
- Recheck answers and calculations in the last ten minutes.
- Stay calm – a clear mind scores better.
